

Mike Lamartina

Mike Lamartina is a dynamic real estate professional vying for the position of President Elect of the St. Charles REALTORS. With a career spanning over a decade in the industry, Mike has consistently demonstrated a commitment to excellence, innovation, and exceptional leadership.

Starting in 2009, Mike embarked on a real estate journey that would quickly catapult him into the spotlight. His trajectory began with earning the title of “Rookie of the Year” his first year in the business. This early success laid the foundation for a career defined by resilience, hard work, and outstanding results.

Not one to rest on his laurels, Mike transitioned seamlessly from being a top-producing agent to becoming a visionary in the industry. In 2020, with a passion to redefine the real estate landscape, Mike honed his skills and opened a new office for Berkshire Hathaway Alliance Real Estate. Within a short span of time, he has elevated the agency to staggering heights. Under his guidance, the St. Charles County office has witnessed unprecedented growth, currently boasting over 100 talented agents.

Mike's career is not solely measured by revenue, but also by his dedication to enriching the real estate community. Mike has personally contributed to building a thriving ecosystem, fostering collaboration, and empowering fellow agents. Through mentorship programs, seminars, and ongoing support, he has consistently inspired others to reach their full potential and create their own success stories. Mike is a current member of the Association's Board of Directors, as well as the Strategic Planning Committee.

With a deep understanding of market dynamics and an unwavering commitment to fair and ethical practices, Mike has emerged as a voice of reason and guidance in the real estate industry. He firmly believes that transparency, trust, and inclusivity are crucial for fostering healthy relationships within the community and beyond.

Armed with industry knowledge, a successful track record, and a charisma, Mike is undoubtedly the candidate best suited to help spearhead the REALTORS Board of Directors. If entrusted with this esteemed role, he will continue to lead with integrity, inspire change, and champion a brighter future for real estate professionals—one where growth, innovation, and collaboration thrive.
