

Jaclyn Wolverton

Jaclyn Wolverton has been a licensed salesperson since 2016. She was recognized as Rookie of the Year that year and has continually been ranked as a top performer with Fox & Riley Real Estate. For several years, Jaclyn was licensed in the state of Florida and was recognized as a top producer in Florida and Missouri! She is active at the state level, attending all of the state conferences since 2017 and is currently serving a two-year appointment as a Missouri State Director. Jaclyn is actively involved at the state level in Leadership Development, Community Engagement and Professional Development.

At the local level, Jaclyn is a member of the Government Affairs Committee, Political Action Committee, Grievance Committee and Committee Review Task Force. In 2020, Jaclyn was selected to attend the St Charles REALTORS® Leadership Academy and graduated in 2021. She served as the local Leadership Development co-chair in 2022 and the Chair in 2023. She recently discovered a passion for teaching and has volunteered to teach new member orientation classes at the St Charles Association. She is a member of the Residential Real Estate Council (RRC) and has earned the following certifications: At Home with Diversity (AHWD), Military Relocation Professional (MRP) and the Commitment to Excellence (C2EX). A lover of learning, Jaclyn decided to obtain her broker's license in January of 2022 and has since used her real estate experience to run a short-term rental in Florida.
